

Hong Kong Translation Society Chen Hsong Group Scholarships 2007/08 香港翻譯學會震雄集團獎學金 2007/08

The Hong Kong Translation Society Scholarships are awarded by the Hong Kong Translation Society with the purpose of recognizing outstanding academic achievement by students of translation in tertiary institutions in Hong Kong and of promoting translation as a discipline in such institutions. From Year 2005/06 to Year 2007/08, the Hong Kong Translation Society Scholarships are donated by: Chen Hsong Group 震雄集團.

Provision of Award

Six scholarships (HKD5,000 each) will be offered each year. Two nominations are invited from each UGC-funded tertiary institution offering a full-time undergraduate translation degree programme in Hong Kong. Nominees shall be final-year students of the current academic year who have achieved outstanding academic results, especially in translation, in their previous years of study. One scholarship shall be awarded to one of the two nominees from each institution. The awards panel reserves the right not to award and its decision shall be final.

Closing Date for Nomination

Completed nomination forms with the relevant academic reports/qualifications attached should reach the Hong Kong Translation Society, P. O. Box 20186, Hennessy Road Post Office, Hong Kong (Re: Scholarships) by 30 June 2008.

Interview and Award-giving Ceremony

All nominees will be invited to attend a selection interview. The six winners will be invited to an award-giving ceremony in due course.
