

Hong Kong Translation Society F. C. Lo Scholarships 香港翻譯學會羅富昌獎學金

The Hong Kong Translation Society Scholarships are awarded by the Hong Kong Translation Society with the purpose of recognizing outstanding academic achievement by students of translation in tertiary institutions in Hong Kong and of promoting translation as a discipline in such institutions. Since the Year 2009-10, the Hong Kong Translation Society Scholarships have been donated by Mr. F. C. Lo, Chairman of FC Packaging Holding Ltd. 永富容器集團主席羅富昌先生.

Provision of Award

Starting from 2018-19, eight scholarships of HKD 10,000 each will be offered. Two nominations are invited from each of eight local universities offering a translation undergraduate programme in Hong Kong. Nominees shall be full-time final-year translation majors who have professed outstanding academic merit and potential in their previous years of study. One scholarship shall be awarded to one of the two nominees from each institution. The awards panel reserves the right not to award and its decision shall be final.

Nomination

Invitations for nomination are usually sent to the eight universities in January each year. Completed nomination forms with the relevant academic reports/qualifications attached shall reach the Hong Kong Translation Society by email to scholarship@hkts.org.hk.

Interview and Award-giving Ceremony

All nominees will be invited to attend a selection interview. The eight winners will be invited to an award-giving ceremony in due course.

Inquiries

For inquiries, please contact Dr. Siu Sai-cheong at scholarship@hkts.org.hk.